

華美協進會

THE CHINESE AMERICAN COUNCIL OF SACRAMENTO

www.cacsweb.org

Author Lecture Luncheon

Featuring

Elaine Zorbas

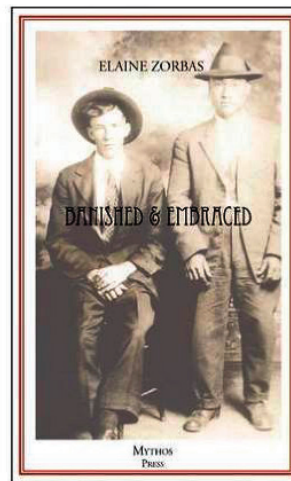

Newly published book

“Banished and Embraced”

Ms. Zorbas has a BA in History from UC Berkeley and a MA in Library Science from USC.

She and her husband live on a small farm in Fiddletown, where she became interested in the unique Chinese history of the region.

Fiddletown's Chinatown was a vibrant Chinese community throughout the 19th and early 20th centuries. Ms. Zorbas brings to life the characters of this Gold Rush era through intense research and translation of recently found documents and letters.

Autographed books will be available for purchase.
